

SYSTEMS ANALYST

Felker Brothers Corp., a manufacturer of stainless steel pipe, tube, fittings and prefabricated piping systems, has an opening for a Systems Analyst. This position is responsible to analyze and develop user requests and troubleshoot computer system problems/errors. Qualifications include knowledge of IBM iSeries, Windows, Visio, SQL, .Net, Visual Basic, Java, HTML and RPG program languages, database design, process mapping and project management. Exposure to a manufacturing environment, document management, data collection systems a plus. In addition, must be able to work and communicate effectively with all staff levels and possess the ability to design creative solutions for automating business processes. Two or more years of experience in programming, bachelor's degree in computer science and project management training preferred.

We offer a competitive wage and benefit package, to include a 401k and profit sharing plan, health, dental, life, short-term and long-term disability coverage and 11 paid holidays and vacation.

Interested candidates may apply at:

Felker Bros. Corp.-SA
Attn: HR Dept.
22 N. Chestnut Avenue
Marshfield, WI 54449

An equal opportunity employer/drug test required.